B. Last month Finance Committee recommended that the board consider developing a strategic organizational development plan and consider contracting with organizational consultants. Proposal to consider having Grace Lee take the Organizational Development Certification Program - ODCP and lead the board/school through the exercises/learnings each month.

https://instituteod.com/online-organization-development-certification-program-odcp/ 8 months long. $3900. Benefits of an ODCP

- Apply proven methodology to create a solid transformation plan
- learn how to apply the concepts of organizational development by using the Action Research Model to identify needs and solve critical challenges using a whole systems approach
- Lead change management initiatives effectively
- Understand your role leading change and improving individual, team or organization wide performance
- Develop and implement focused, practical assessments
- Identify principles for guiding, implementing and evaluating change effectively
- Impact the bottom line of the organization with results
- Sharpen your facilitation and contracting skills
