There are still spots left, so please invite interested families to our Open House Tuesday March 15, 5-6:30 p.m.

Super Six Reading Strategies

Parents, please make sure your child reads every night. Please also practice these reading strategies with your child at home to help with reading comprehension.

1. Predict and Preview. Write two predictions you have based on your preview of title and pictures, or anything you can tell by looking at the book.
2. Vocabulary. Write down any new words for you in the reading and what strategy you used to understand that word. (Strategies include: using context clues, prefix/suffix/root words, similar words)
3. Summarize the beginning, middle and end
4. Write the main idea in one sentence.
5. Connections. How does this reading connect to your life experiences? How does it connect to other things you've read or learned about?
6. Author's Purpose. Why did the author write this? To persuade? To inform? To entertain?
